PRISONERS OF WAR AND MISSING PERSONS

The letter of the permanent representative of the Republic of Croatia addressed to the UN Secretary General (Doc. SB S/26609 of 21 October 1993) and the press conference of "Croatian mothers" of 20 October 1993 held in the Press Conference Centre is yet another propaganda ploy aimed at hoodwinking the international public by accusing the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia for the alleged disappearance of 13,000 PoWs and missing persons. It is done by Croatia for its own political and propaganda purposes.

a) Prisoners of war

The first comprehensive agreement on the exchange of the PoWs was signed by the Yugoslav People's Army and the Republic of Croatia in Zagreb on 6 November 1991. On behalf of the Yugoslav People's Army the Agreement was signed by Lieut.-Gen. Andrija Rašeta, by Ivan Milas, Deputy Minister of Defence, on behalf of the Republic of Croatia and by Van Houten, on behalf of the mission of the European Community in Yugoslavia. Subsequently such agreements were signed at the level of Prime Ministers in Geneva (18-19 July 1992) and Budapest (7 August 1992). On the basis of the agreement signed in Budapest, representatives of Yugoslavia released on 14 August 1992 at the village of Nemetin all PoWs in the presence of the representatives of the ICRC and the Republic of Croatia, according to exchange lists prepared by the ICRC.

However, 124 persons were not released to the Croatian authorities for the following reasons:

- 32 persons sentenced for an attempt to destroy the bridge on the Danube near Bezdan or, as the citizens of the FR of Yugoslavia, for other criminal acts. The ICRC recognized PoW status to these persons.

- 92 persons from the territories outside the FR of Yugoslavia, held captive in the Republic of Srpska and the Republic of Serbian Krajina. The obligation to release these persons was imposed on the FR of Yugoslavia by the ICRC and accepted by the former Prime Minister of the FR of Yugoslavia Milan Panić.

The FR of Yugoslavia, the Republic of Srpska and the Republic of Serbian Krajina released additional 113 PoWs to the authorities of the Republic of Croatia during subsequent PoWs exchanges. So that at the present moment, only 11 persons remain in the FR of Yugoslavia captured during the attempt to destroy the bridge on the Danube near Bezdan and sentenced to imprisonment. No other persons are held captive in the FR of Yugoslavia.

b) Missing persons

A meeting of the representatives of the SFRY and the Republic of Croatia was held at the initiative of the International Committee of the Red Cross in Geneva on 27 November 1991 when a Memorandum of understanding was signed. This Memorandum specified the modalities for the settlement of humanitarian problems and the implementation of the rules of humanitarian law in an armed conflict as was going on at that time. The Memorandum envisaged, inter alia, the establishment of a Joint Commission for tracing missing and dead persons (para 8).

The Commission was established at the meeting held in Pecs on 16 December 1991. The regulations and rules of procedure of the Commission were adopted at that meeting and were subsequently amended at the meeting held in Budapest on 31 July 1992 because of the changes which had taken place in Yugoslavia in the meantime.

The Commission has had 9 meetings either in Pecs or Budapest. It has achieved certain results, but it is obvious that these results are below the efforts invested. In point of fact, representatives of Croatia have tried all along to use the apparently humanitarian problems for political and propaganda purposes. For example, after the fall of Vukovar they instituted a procedure for the search of 35 000 of missing persons.

At the last meeting of the Commission held in Budapest on 30 and 31 July 1992, the delegation of the Republic of Croatia submitted a list of 365 missing persons from the hospital in Vukovar (Annex 1) and a list of 572 missing civilians from Vukovar and its surroundings (Annex 2), while on 23 November 1993 it submitted to the Yugoslav Red Cross a list of 522 missing persons from the territory of the entire Republic of Croatia (Annex 3).

Numerous inaccuracies and manipulations with the names of the missing persons have been noted in these lists which was pointed out at the meeting in Budapest, but representatives of the Republic of Croatia continue to use them with the tacit approval of the ICRC, also acquainted with these inaccuracies, some of which are given below:

1. Slobodan Letica, of father Mirko, lost his life in a traffic accident on 27 May 1986 at Bršadin (photostat of the Death Certificate enclosed in Annex 4). The Croatian Red Cross continues to list him as a missing person (No. 96 on the list of the wounded in the Vukovar hospital and No.8 on the list of the Yugoslav Red Cross under letter L, ICRC form No. 100291).

2. Robert Lončarević, of father Vladislav, listed in the Vukovar Register Book of Deaths under No. 310 (Annex 5), continues to be listed by the Croatian Red Cross as a missing person (No. 98 on the list of the wounded in the Vukovar hospital and No. 6 on the list of the Yugoslav Red Cross under letter L, ICRC form No. 115107).

3. Anidrija Gajer, born in 1932, from Beli Manastir, resident of A. Karadjordjević Street 63, is searched by Katarina Astaloš from Varaždin, resident of Aleja 8 maja 6 (ICRC form No. 115381), while the mentioned persons communicate through the ICRC (Annex 6).

4. Ivan Redžić, of father Petar, born on 23 December 1966, is registered both on the list of the wounded patients of the Vukovar hospital under No. 134 and on the list of the wounded in the "Komerc" shelter, Borovo Naselje, under No. 19.

- Mirko Vagenhofer, of father Josip, born on 13 June 1937, is registered both on the list of the wounded patients of the Vukovar hospital under No. 160 and on the list of the missing civilians of the hospital under No. 28.

- Zoran Gašpar, of father Dragutin, born on 14 March 1971, is registered both on the list of the wounded patients of the Vukovar hospital under No. 39 and on the list of the auxiliary staff of the Vukovar Medical Centre.

- Zdravko Mikulić, of father Slavko, born on 15 March 1961, is registered both on the list of the wounded patients of the Vukovar hospital under No. 108 and on the list of the missing civilians from the hospital under No. 34.

5. Scad Šaškin, of father Hasan, born on 22 March 1960 is registered on the list of the wounded patients of the Vukovar hospital both under No. 145 and No. 200.

- Ivan Senčić, of father Martin, born on 21 February 1964 is registered on the list of the wounded patients of the Vukovar hospital both under No. 138 and No. 199.

6. A number of persons are registered on the list of the wounded patients of the Vukovar hospital although they were discharged from the hospital previously:

- Željko Batarelo, of father Ante, registered on the list of missing persons under No. 8, was treated in the hospital from 15 - 20 October 1991, case history No. 1501.

- Ivan Crnjac, of father Slavko, registered on the list of missing persons under No. 20, was treated in the hospital from 5 - 7 May 1991, case history No. 632,

- Ivan Došen, of father Ivan, registered on the list of missing persons under No. 24, was treated in the hospital from 25 -29 July 1991, case history No. 1023,

- Dragun Josip, of father Srećko, registered on the list of missing persons under No.27, was treated in the hospital from 29 September to 11 October 1991, case history No. 1557.

- Dmitar Pucar, of father Nikola, registered on the list of missing persons under No. 129, was treated in the hospital from 14 - 20 September 1991, case history No. 1218, etc.

The above instances prove that there are no prisoners of war on the territory of the FR of Yugoslavia and that the authorities of the Republic of Croatia resort to various ploys to increase the number of missing persons, availing themselves of the indolence of ICRC members who have failed to condemn the practice of the Republic of Croatia although they know of the inaccuracies vis-a-vis the number of missing persons searched by the Republic of Croatia.

LETTER DATED 15 DECEMBER 1993 FROM THE PERMANENT REPRESENTATIVE OF IRAQ TO THE UNITED NATIONS ADDRESSED TO THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

On instructions from my Government, I have the honour to inform you that at 1645 hours on 9 December 1993, United States and allied aircraft dropped 12 (twelve) heat flares on the area north-east of the Saddam Dam Lake, 3 kilometres inside Ninawa Governorate.

The continued dropping of heat flares by United States and allies attack aircraft furnishes one proof after another of the persistence of the United States in inflicting injury on Iraq and its people and infringing on its security and sovereignty.

The Government of the Republic of Iraq protests strongly at the continuation of these hostile acts, and we request you to intervene and to take such measures as are imposed by the Charter of the international Organization to halt them and to prevent their recurrence in the future.

I should be grateful if you would have this letter circulated as a document of the Security Council.

Appendix

Fifth semi-annual report (covering the period 17 June 1993-17 December 1993) on the implementation by the International Atomic Energy Agency of the plan for the destruction, removal or rendering harmless of items listed in paragraph 12 of Security Council resolution 687 (1991)

INTRODUCTION

By resolution 699 (1991) of 17 June 1991, the Security Council approved the plan submitted by the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA), through the Secretary-General, for the destruction, removal or rendering harmless of all items listed in paragraph 12 of Security Council resolution 687 (1991). Resolution 699 (1991) also called for the Secretary-General to submit every six months a progress report on the implementation of the plan.

The first four reports were circulated by the Secretary-General to the members of the Security Council in document S/23295, dated 17 December 1991; S/24110, dated 17 June 1992; S/24988, dated 17 December 1992; and S/25983, dated 21 June 1993.

This is the fifth semi-annual report on the implementation by IAEA of the plan for destruction, removal or rendering harmless covering the period from 17 June 1993 to 17 December 1993. During this period, IAEA, with the assistance and cooperation of the Special Commission of the United Nations, conducted three on-site inspections in Iraq (IAEA-20, IAEA-21 and IAEA-22), detailed reports of which have been distributed to the Security Council. a/

I. PRESENT STATUS

As of 17 December 1993, IAEA has carried out 22 missions in Iraq. The major activities related to the destruction, removal and rendering harmless of proscribed items involved continuing efforts to locate and identify items required to be reported to IAEA.

In addition, a series of high-level technical discussions were held between Iraq, on the one hand, and IAEA and the Special Commission, on the other hand. In the course of these discussions, and of IAEA-22, the Iraqi Government provided information on foreign technical advice received in the centrifuge enrichment area as well as information on procurement from abroad of materials and equipment, including, in particular, maraging steel. Iraq also submitted to IAEA updated and revised declarations pursuant to annexes 2 and 3 of the plan for future ongoing monitoring and verification of Iraq's nuclear activities. Verification of the additional information is under way.

A significant outcome of the high-level talks was the announcement by Iraq, by way of a letter dated 26 November 1993 addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/26811) from the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Iraq, of Iraq's decision "to accept the obligations set forth in resolution 715 (1991) and to comply with the provisions of the plans for monitoring and verification as contained therein".

Direct-use material

Irradiated fuel

In June 1993, IAEA concluded a contract with the Russian Ministry for Atomic Energy, with the Nuclear Assurance Corporation of the United States of America as a main subcontractor, for the removal, transportation from Iraq and subsequent disposal of the remaining enriched uranium, in the form of 208 irradiated fuel assemblies from the Iraqi research reactors, located in Iraq. Extensive preparatory work was carried out to ensure the safety of the removal operation. These activities included, inter alia, the construction of new access roads to the two sites where the fuel assemblies are stored, the installation of cleaning stations and of large reinforced concrete platforms, the securing of adequate heavy-duty lifting equipment and vehicles and the provision of personnel facilities such as offices, decontamination showers and communication equipment.

The first of the two planned shipments was successfully completed on 4 December 1993, with the transport, via air, out of Iraq to a facility in the Russian Federation, of approximately 100 of the fuel assemblies (all of which were manufactured in the former Soviet Union). The removal operations were conducted under the close supervision of IAEA in accordance with all relevant safety standards and measures. The Iraqi authorities have cooperated effectively in providing equipment and utilities and all of the necessary manpower. Preparations for the second shipment will start at the beginning of January 1994, with the objective of completing the total removal by February 1994.

Plutonium and other nuclear material

Efforts have continued to clarify remaining uncertainties in the area of nuclear material, namely the inventory of natural uranium and the detailed utilization of part of this inventory in Iraq's past nuclear activities. Significant progress has been made in the course of IAEA-22 in verifying the origin of the large natural uranium oxide stock declared by the Iraqi authorities to be of Brazilian origin. Also, most of the remaining natural uranium containing slurries from Al Jezira has been recovered - some 59 drums - and is being transferred to location C at Tuwaitha. Verification samples will be taken in the course of the next inspection.

Installations, equipment and other materials relevant to enriched uranium production and to weaponization activities

As indicated above, the Iraqi authorities have submitted an updated list of material, equipment and other items in Iraq identified in annex 3 of the Agency's plan for future ongoing monitoring and verification of Iraq's compliance with paragraph 12 of part C of Security Council resolution 687 (1991). Verification of the correctness and assessment of the completeness of the list, begun in the course of the eighteenth inspection, is continuing. A description of the verification activities carried out during IAEA-20 and IAEA-21 is set out in the consolidated report of the two missions (S/26333). The activities carried out during IAEA-22 will be described in the twenty-second inspection report.

II. FUTURE ACTIONS

Removal of the remaining irradiated fuel assemblies should be completed by the end of February 1994. Under the contract concluded with the Russian Ministry for Atomic Energy, all the irradiated fuel assemblies removed from Iraq will be reprocessed to recover the highly enriched uranium. The latter will be isotopically diluted to less than 20 per cent enrichment by blending it with natural or depleted uranium. The radioactive waste resulting from reprocessing will be adequately conditioned and permanently stored in a waste repository.

Continuing efforts will be made to resolve remaining uncertainties in the nuclear-material flow chart submitted by the Iraqi authorities.

Verification of the correctness and assessment of the completeness of the revised list of items submitted pursuant to annex 3 of the plan for future ongoing monitoring will continue.

Notes

a/ S/26333 (IAEA-20 and IAEA-21); the report on IAEA-22 will be forwarded to the Secretary-General for submission to the Security Council as soon as it is ready.

On instructions from my Government and subsequent to my letter dated 10 December 1993 and its annex, the letter dated 9 December 1993 from Mr. Mohammed Said al-Sahaf, Minister for Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Iraq, concerning the dropping of provocative leaflets on Basra and other locations by United States warplanes, I transmit herewith a photograph of one of the parachutes that the American aggressors used to drop their leaflets. We found a number of them in one part of Basra.

I should be grateful if you would have this letter circulated as a document of the Security Council.

On instructions from my Government, I have the honour to transmit to you herewith a letter dated 16 December 1993 from Mr. Mohammed Said al-Sahaf, Minister for Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Iraq, concerning the dropping of provocative leaflets on urban and rural areas in southern Iraq by United States warplanes.

Accept, Sir, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Annex

Letter dated 16 December 1993 from the Minister for Foreign Affairs of Iraq addressed to the President of the Security Council

I wish to refer to my letter of 9 December 1993 addressed to you concerning the aggressive and provocative acts being carried out by the Government of the United States of America and the violation of Iraqi airspace by United States warplanes flying out of Saudi Arabian territory and dropping provocative leaflets on urban and rural areas in southern Iraq, particularly the Basra area.

In this second letter, I wish to draw your attention to the fact that the United States Government has repeated its provocative and aggressive actions, inasmuch as United States warplanes have committed the following assaults:

1. 1030 hours on 10 December 1993, hostile United States warplanes, flying out of Saudi Arabian territory, dropped hostile and provocative leaflets on areas in Dhi Qar Governorate.

2. At 1000 hours on 11 December 1993, United States warplanes dropped provocative leaflets hostile to Iraq and the Iraqi people on a number of areas in Basra Governorate.

3. At 1240 hours on 12 December 1993, a United States remote-controlled aircraft dropped inflammatory leaflets on a subdistrict in Basra Governorate.

I register in this letter a strong protest against the unlawful assaults carried out by the United States Government against Iraq and the Iraqi people. The continuation of these acts increasingly exposes the criminal nature of the policy of the United States Government and its odious colonialist tendency.

Our people views with disapproval and contempt the unlawful conduct emanating from the Government of the United States of America and also feels regret and amazement that the Government of a major Power that claims to be civilized is engaging in what resembles brigandry.

I should be grateful if you would have this letter circulated as a document of the Security Council.

For many years Saddam has been trying to destroy the reputation and honour of the Iraqi Army by humiliating it and forcing it to fight the people and kill the innocent. How long shall we bear this humiliation? Shall we wait for the day when the traitor to Iraq turns from annihilating the people to annihilating the Army? Saddam's schemes serve only Saddam and his cronies, not the State or the Army. Do not be duped as others were duped before you. Do not leave your future in the hands of a man who will dig you a grave in order to build a palace on it.

ANNEX

Letter dated 17 December 1993 from the Chargé d'affaires a.i. of the Permanent Mission of Yugoslavia to the United Nations addressed to the Chairman of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 724 (1991) concerning Yugoslavia

Upon instructions of my Government, I am writing to you regarding the decision of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 724 (1991) concerning Yugoslavia in connection with the request for the export of natural gas for humanitarian purposes to the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia.

The Government of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia is appalled that, due to the incomprehensible and inhumane policy of certain members of the Committee, the request of the Russian Federation for the export of natural gas to the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia exclusively for the heating of hospitals, kindergartens, schools, homes and other institutions of a humanitarian character, was actually rejected at the Committee's latest meeting, held on 9 December 1993. The effects of this malevolent decision will have tragic consequences, particularly for the innocent - children, the frail and the elderly in the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia.

The position of the United States, the United Kingdom and France that they would be prepared to consider favourably the export to the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia of only limited quantities of heating fuel for certain institutions, whose particular needs are verified by relevant humanitarian agencies, is unfortunately nothing more than an attempt to justify their absolutely unacceptable and irrational position in order to quell a possible outrage by international humanitarian organizations and the media, had this humanitarian request been outrightly rejected.

The decision to consider authorizing only strictly limited quantities of fuel will result in the continuing collective punishment of the civilian population in the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia whose lives are directly jeopardized due to the lack of natural gas and fuel for heating during the harsh winter months. Taking into account the very slow and painstaking procedure that is envisaged by such a mechanism, it is evident that urgently needed fuel for humanitarian purposes cannot possibly reach on time those in need. In a situation where the greatest number of hospitals, schools, kindergartens and dwellings in the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia are left with virtually no heating, it is morally and practically unacceptable that the Government of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia should face the ultimate choice of which institutions are to be supplied and which sacrificed.

By refusing to allow the import of gas for humanitarian purposes, the countries in question have decided to ignore the appeals of United Nations humanitarian agencies in the field, and particularly the assessments of Mrs. Ogata, the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, Dr. Nakajima, Director-General of WHO, Mr. Jan Eliasson, Under-Secretary-General for Humanitarian Affairs, and the Co-Chairman of the Conference on the former Yugoslavia.

By their stubborn and incomprehensible position, the United States, the United Kingdom and France have acted against the letter and spirit of the Security Council resolutions on sanctions, in which humanitarian products are exempted from the sanctions regime. Moreover, they have abused the consensus principle by which the Committee reaches its decisions and defied the will of the members of the Sanctions Committee, who felt that the pressing humanitarian situation in the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia needed an urgent positive decision.

For well over a year, despite repeated appeals and thoroughly documented and extensively explicated requests for urgent humanitarian imports of gas and oil for heating purposes, the Governments of those three countries have constantly asked for further information and data only to expose finally that all those demands were part of a delaying tactic.

As eloquently put in the statement of the Permanent Representative of the Russian Federation to the United Nations, which was made available to the public, "the sanctions should not cause additional unacceptable suffering to the civilian population and especially its most vulnerable segments. The sanctions cannot and should not serve as an instrument which indiscriminately punishes innocents and affects thereby the prestige of the United Nations and its humanistic ideals and traditions".

By their decision, the United States, the United Kingdom and France have indeed exactly decided to punish the innocent not only by keeping the temperature at pipe-freezing levels in humanitarian institutions, educational facilities and homes during the harsh winter months, but have also denied the necessary raw material for food-processing and the pharmaceutical industry, which will inevitably lead to grave shortages of foodstuffs and medicaments well into next year.

The notion put forward by the United States in the Committee, that Belgrade should feel the suffering of Sarajevo, is outrageous as it uncovers the main aim of the sanctions, which is evidently not to stop the civil war, but to punish innocent civilians for events over which they have no control.

The question arises - who gave the right to those countries and under what principle of international or humanitarian law can anyone exercise such punishment of an entire nation?

Those who have decided to continue to deny the most basic human rights of innocent civilians in the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia under the pretext of defending human rights elsewhere, will have to bear the great responsibility for the human suffering and loss of life that will most certainly ensue as a result of their decision. Aware of the efforts that Your Excellency has invested in attempting to facilitate a positive decision on the import of fuels for humanitarian purposes and of the sympathetic attitude of many members of the Committee, we call upon you to bring this issue to the attention of the Security Council so that it may be reconsidered.
